FEBRUARY MTOS MEETING

February 15

David Nelms, local service representative of the Moller Organ Company, and the person responsible for supervising the installation of the monumental organ at Calvary Church, has graciously invited us to meet at his home in Mint Hill on Friday, February 15, at 6:00 p.m.

Those who were present at our first meeting at Rodgers Organs of Charlotte, in September of 1989, will remember the outstanding refreshments served after the meeting. These were prepared by David Nelms. And he has now offered to feed us, as well as providing the meeting place.

The address is 7525 Lawyers Station Drive, Mint Hill, and there is a map attached. Please call David at 704/545-0435, so he will know how many to prepare for. In addition to business matters, there will be videotapes of highlights from the 1990 ATOS convention in Indianapolis. David's work number is 847-8323.

GREENSBORO

The Carolina Theatre in Greensboro has re-opened after extensive renovation, and it is magnificent. More news in the next issue. Or call Rod Glasgow at 334-0366 for information.

WELCOME

We are pleased to welcome as a new member:

RECITAL

John Weaver, noted concert artist and organist at Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church in New York City, will give a recital at Myers Park Presbyterian Church on Sunday, February 10, at 7:30 p.m. This promises to be an especially enjoyable evening of organ music. And everyone is invited, free of charge.

AMERICAN MOVIE CLASSICS

This is a magazine for anyone interested in Hollywood and the movies. And it regularly features great movie houses, especially the classic palaces which have been preserved, and which were the original preserve of the theatre organ. A subscription form is reproduced below.
